

Photos from the Spring 2011 MCCB Conference, hosted by Grand Rapids Community College

Thanks to Lynnda Skidmore for sharing these photos

Conference attendees enjoying the Keynote speaker on Saturday, Julie Davis Turner, talking on "Inquiry in Biology Teaching: The Road Less Traveled"

Julie Davis Turner (Van Andel Institute), discussing "Inquiry in Biology Teaching: The Road Less Traveled"

Eric Simon and his talk Saturday titled: "Using Technology to Enliven Introductory Biology"

Matt Douglas (GRCC) session leader: "The Benefits of Combining Lecture and Laboratory in the Biological Sciences"

"The Benefits of Combining Lecture and Laboratory in the Biological Sciences"

"The Benefits of Combining Lecture and Laboratory in the Biological Sciences"

Hosts of the GRCC conferences, working hard on the raffle. Everybody won a prize!!

Thank you Grand Rapids hosts for a wonderful spring meeting!